The goal of course and a short description of the course

This module aims to provide students with basic knowledge of essential elements of Arabic language in terms of theory and practice.

Arabic language which is one of the basic courses in the faculty has been given an important consideration since it is the source language of Qur'an and Hadith and religious-related courses as well. It is through this course that students are trained for writing and speaking properly. The use of vocabularies enables them to translate from Arabic language to Albanian and vice versa.

The aim of the course is to enable students to learn these abilities:

Language skills, communicating skills and culture-related abilities. The first one includes: listening, communicating, reading and writing. Three language factors are:

1. Sounds (and other sound-related phenomena)
2. Words (and expressions taken from context and terms)
3. Grammar formulations (using certain grammar units, morphology and dictation)

Expected learning outcomes:

At the end of the course students will be able to:

1. Know basic elements of Arabic language
2. Read and write in Arabic
3. Translate independently from Arabic to Albanian and vice versa

Instruction methodology:

Lectures, exercises, seminars, conversations, discussions, work in groups etc
